CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
BY  DEPUTY CLERK

Honorable Court:

As you can see from the enclosed letter from my attorney, John Economidy, dated April 6, 2010, the letter was not mailed to me until April 12, 2010, and I received it on April 15, 2010.

I am asking for an extension of time due to the appeal, and for a hearing to be granted. I am asking for the extension to be granted until after my Direct Appeal ruling.

The case number for the Direct Appeal is Case No. 09-51115, United States Court of Appeal, Fifth Circuit.

There was no attached form included with the letter you sent. The Reference Case No. is SA-07-CR-511-RF(01)(02)(03).

Please note for the record for the hearing, all the property in Bienville Parish, Louisiana was acquired prior to 1998, and prior to the 2004 incident or charges. In my plea agreement, the forfeiture was property obtained during the period of 2005-2007.

Most of the property and escrow money is family heir property originally belonging to some one-hundred or more cousins for property that has been in the family for over one-hundred and ten years (110 years).

Please grant a delay until after direct appeal and the hearing I have requested. This delay is requested for all forfeiture and seizure of any and all property related to John and Melissa Cockerham cases, whether listed known or unknown and final judgements.
